

Our Scotland

$Rev: 236 $

This is a Reform UK Scotland Position Paper

We don't believe in manifestos, which are concocted at election times to meet the fashion of the day. We believe in having set principles and goals, with policies that strive to achieve them.

We have a vision of Scotland where:

- the citizens are sovereign and Government is their servant
- personal liberty and free speech are respected and promoted
- support is available when needed, but life is largely untrammelled by government interference
- health care is freely available to citizens who need it and who respect its provision
- appropriate high quality education is offered to all
- the natural environment is cherished and protected but is accessible to all
- traditional Scottish values of integrity, thrift, hard work and tolerance are valued and upheld
- Government manages the affairs of the nation as well as it can, but does not influence its direction
- Scotland maintains its rightful place as a full and respected member of the United Kingdom
